

QUALIFICATION & FOCAL POINTS

- Occupational therapist
- Special Needs
- Early Childhood Development

Rachel Carey has been working as a children's occupational therapist for the past ten years. She has worked in both special needs and mainstream settings with children with a range of challenges and difficulties. Her passion is early childhood development and in using teaching and training tools to help meet the scale of challenges in early childhood development in South Africa.

Rachel Carey